What is a Service Animal?

Legal Definition under Americans with Disabilities Act

- Dog only (exception for miniature horses)
- Individually trained to do work or perform tasks
- Directly related to handler’s disability
“Disability” under ADA

- A physical or mental impairment
- Substantially limits one or more major life activities
- e.g., self-care, manual tasks, see, hear, eat, sleep, walk, stand, speak, breath, learn, read, concentrate, think, communicate, work

Trained Tasks Examples

- Guide around obstacles or to car or exit
- Alert to stove timer or alarm clock
- Retrieve dropped items
- Nudge alert to symptoms or medication reminder
- Provide deep pressure during panic attack
Service Animal BEHAVIOR for public access under ADA...

- House trained
- Under handler control
- Tether, leash, harness*
- Does NOT constitute “undue burden” for employer or “fundamentally alter the nature of the service” for business....

What differentiates...?

• Service dog
• Emotional support animal (ESA)
• Therapy dog
• Service-dog-in-training (SDiT)

Emotional Support Animal

Service Animal definition from the ADA:

“The crime deterrent effects of an animal's presence and the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition.” (Emphasis added.)
Emotional Support Animal

• FHA includes both ESAs and service dogs as “assistance animal”
• Domesticated pet of any species allowed as a “reasonable accommodation to a disability” in “no pets” housing (FHA)
• ESA does NOT applying to flying anymore
Air Travel

• ACAA now follows same definition for service animal as the ADA
• ESAs are no longer granted access on planes
• Dog must be task trained
• Attestation forms – house training & health, behavior & training (contact info for trainer)
• https://www.transportation.gov/individuals/aviation-consumer-protection/service-animals

Therapy Dog

- Handler and dog together provide comfort, support, therapeutic benefit
- May be volunteers or professional in the field
- To a variety of people
- Certain settings
- Handler need not be disabled

Rights of public access?

- ESA (Emotional support animal) - NO
- Therapy Dog - NO
- Handlers of SDs have public access rights - YES
- Trainers with SDiT – DEPENDS
Community Standards

Behavior

• Quiet, unobtrusive
• No scavenging, sniffing people, snorfling merch
• Focused on handler
• Obedient, professional, mannerly
• Don’t know it’s there

Service dog certification in U.S.

Programs or trainers may certify your dog has achieved their standards, e.g., our DISC program.

No LEGAL weight. Paper or registration number from a websites is a waste of money.
What makes a “legal” SD?

- Legal standard: House trained, under handler’s control’s, reliably trained to perform tasks

- Community standard: Unobtrusive, clean, obedient, mannerly

- Recommended: Public access evaluation from your trainer

How to Get to Olympics?

• Train, train, train (hard work)
• Motivation (love of the sport)
• Luck
• Innate talents & strengths
Service Dog Training Process

Begin at bottom and level up

Foundation

1. Acquire dog or puppy with excellent health, ideal temperament (confident, friendly, etc.)
2. Daily positive experiences for puppy with touch, new sights, sounds, people, places
3. 100% management (prevent bad behavior 24/7)
4. Continue + socialization
5. Train perfect manners in home or class
6. Train perfect public manners
7. Train tasks in home
8. Train tasks in public
9. SD Team!
Adult Dog Aptitude for PA
(temperament/personality – not training)

• Highly sociable (loves or comfortable with everyone)
• Comfort with novelty (newness)
• Confident, easy-going (happy-go-lucky/surfer dude)
• Not noise sensitive (loud/unexpected sounds OK)
• Not reactive or aggressive (tries all other options first)
• Healthy (no chronic health issues, pain, etc.)
• Friendly or unconcerned with other dogs
• Low prey/chase drive
• On/off switch (moderate energy, can relax anywhere)
• Food drive (more interest in treats than anything else)
Score Your Dog’s Public Access Aptitude

• In previous slide, will show again, ask yourself, “Is this my dog?” for each question
• For each “Definitely yes,” add 1 point
• For each “No,” give no points (zero)
• Tally score
• Note number of points in red or yellow zones
Adult Dog Aptitude for PA
(temperament/personality – not training)

- Highly sociable (loves or comfortable with everyone)
- Comfort with novelty (newness)
- Confident, easy-going (happy-go-lucky/surfer dude)
- Not noise sensitive (loud/unexpected sounds OK)
- Not reactive or aggressive (tries all other options first)
- Healthy (no chronic health issues, pain, etc.)
- Friendly or unconcerned with other dogs
- Low prey/chase drive
- On/off switch (moderate energy, can relax anywhere)
- Food drive (more interest in treats than anything else)
Your dog’s public access aptitude

• “Will my dog be happy working in public?” It’s _not_ a measure of how wonderful your dog is!
• The higher the score, the greater the public access potential. 10 = ideal candidate!
• Dogs _unlikely_ to be happy as full-time PA SDs
  – Did not get all 5 points in _red_ zone
  – Usually also needs 2 points in _yellow_ zone
  – Score 7 or below
Puppy Personality (2-6 months)

- “Typical” puppy: not timid, fearful or early signs of reactivity
- Strangers: Generally wants to greet
- Dogs: May greet eagerly or some initial caution
- New places or situations: Interested, curious, some initial caution with some new things, or distracted/excited, but still interested in treats
- Low to moderate prey drive (may want to chase a squirrel or bunny, but not every car or bird; becomes less interested with maturation)
Time Commitment

• A full-time job for 2+ years
• Do you have ample spare time every day?
• More time to devote = more likely success
• Train high level manners, then train in every environment, then finish task training
• Also mental commitment: preventing problem behaviors, daily management & enrichment
